The Honorable Frederick G. Payne
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Payne:

I enjoyed the opportunity of talking with you on our plane ride to New York last Saturday.

I thought you might be interested in the attached letter I received from the Commissioner of Education of your state with regard to my address at the Columbia Commencement, where both Senator Margaret Chase Smith and I received Honorary Degrees. It is interesting to note that your Department of Education is following with such interest educational developments in the Soviet Union.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
